In 1973, the structure of the Association was revised so that the position of CCA President then became that of Chair of the Board (CCA's most senior elected officer). At the same time, the office of President became that of the Association's full-time Chief Executive Officer, in Ottawa.

En 1973, la structure de l'Association a été modifiée: le poste de président de l'ACC est devenu celui de président du Conseil (premier cadre supérieur élu de l'Association). Parallèlement, la fonction de président a été convertie, son titulaire devenant le président-directeur général à plein temps de l'Association, à Ottawa.
