CCA corporate membership is subject to approval by the CCA board. CCA will confirm the receipt of your application and advise you when your application will be reviewed (next board meeting). Following the board meeting, you will be informed about the CCA board's decision. If your application is approved, you will be contacted about your company's listing on the CCA website, in the printed membership directory, etc.

As part of your membership, you will receive the following electronic communications from CCA: CCA Weekly (weekly e-newsletter) and CCA Update (board meeting follow-up sent three times a year). You may also receive an invitation and reminders for CCA's annual conference if you have attended it in the past two years or have opted in to receive conference updates. You can opt out of any electronic messages at any point.
