

New Gold Seal fees

The Canadian Construction Association (CCA) remains committed to keeping the Gold Seal Certification Program current with the industry's evolving needs and ensuring program pricing stays aligned with comparable professional qualifications and industry standards. As such, the CCA is updating the Gold Seal application and accreditation fees effective January 1, 2026.

Individual Gold Seal application fees

Applies to individuals submitting enrollment, GSC or P.GSC applications and exam registrations.

Application type	Current fee	New fee
Enrollment application	$ 425	$ 490
GSC application	$ 100	$ 115
Exam registration	$ 125	$ 150
Equivalency	$ 525	$ 600
GSI to GSC application*	$ 400	$ 460
P.GSC application/renewal	$ 125	$ 150

*GSI to GSC is only for applicants who applied as interns before March 12, 2021.

Note: Applicants enrolled in the Gold Seal Certification Program prior to January 1, 2026, will be required to pay the updated fees when advancing to the Gold Seal Certification (GSC) application and exam. Previous fees will not be honoured for any applications or exams submitted on or after January 1, 2026.

Course accreditation fees

Applies to providers and institutions submitting applications for new or renewed course accreditations.

Note: For currently accredited courses, the new fee structure will take effect at the time of renewal.

Application type	Current fee	New fee
New accreditation – course providers	$100	$200
New accreditation – institutions	$50	$200
Accreditation renewal	$25	$200